Newlyweds Living At Dumas, Texas

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Brown

Mr. Robert B. Brown of Waverly and his bride, the former Artell Albers of Dumas, Texas, are living at 1005 Klein St., Dumas, following a wedding trip through New Mexico. They were married Friday, Dec. 20, at the First Methodist Church in Dumas, with the Rev. H. E. Driessner, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, officiating.

Mr. Brown is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Brown, Waverly, Route 2, and the bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Abbott of Dumas.

The double ring service was read before an altar banked with palms and greenery and flanked with potted poinsettia plants tied with white bows. Tall white tapers in white candelabras completed the decorations.

Mr. Abbott escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a floor length gown of tiers of Chantilly lace and tulle over white taffeta. The bride's elbow length veil of French illusion was caught to a pearl tiara. She carried a white orchid and lilies of the valley on a white Bible.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Ray Lucas, was gowned in ballerina-length red velvet with which she wore a matching headpiece trimmed with white flowers. Wearing similar costumes were the bridesmaids, Miss Thyra Rice of Sunray, Texas, and Miss Kay Harbert, cousin of the bride. All carried nosegays of white flowers.

The candlelighters, Lee Abbott, the bride's sister, and Suzie Hise, the bride's cousin, were dressed in blue velvet trimmed with white. Sheryl Cox and Angela Hise, the bride's cousins, were flower girls and their frocks were red velvet trimmed with white.

Mr. J. T. DeShazo served as best man. Ushers were Mr. Ray
