Miss Bernice M. Watters Becomes Bride Of Mr. Francis E. Edinger

Bride Wears Poudre Blue Crepe Dress; Her Attendant Chose Ashes of Roses—Breakfast at Moore's; Couple Leave on Wedding Journey Today.

Miss Bernice Marie Watters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley E. Watters, 215 South Mulberry street, plighted her troth at noon today to Mr. Francis E. Edinger, son of Mrs. Georgianna Edinger, 46 West Fourth street, at St. Peter's parsonage, in the presence of Miss Martha Ranck and Mr. Ralph Martin.

The Rev. Father F. J. Kreuskamp read the impressive single ring service.

Wears Poudre Blue

A perfectly plain poudre blue crepe dress, fashioned with long, tight sleeves was the bride's wedding dress. She wore a navy blue silk hat with a slight brim, and pinned to her shoulder was a corsage of gardenias and bride's roses.

Miss Ranck chose for the occasion an ashes of roses crepe dress, made with elbow length sleeves. Her accessories were white, and her flowers a shoulder corsage of Talisman roses and sweetpeas.

Leave On Journey

The bridal party enjoyed a wedding breakfast at Moore's Platinum grill, immediately following the ceremony, after which Mr. Edinger and his bride left on a short wedding journey.

For travelling, Mrs. Edinger chose a swagger suit of navy blue with large fur cuffs. Her blouse was yellow, and she wore a large yellow hat and carried a yellow purse.

Reside On Fourth street

Upon their return to this city, they will be at home to their wide circle of friends at 168 East Fourth street.

The bride attended the local high school, and for the past several years has been employed at the Gallaher Drug company. A most attractive brunette, with an outstanding personality, she is both extremely popular and well known.

Mr. Edinger, following his graduation from the local high school went to the Mead corporation where he is an employee. He is a member of the Phi Delta Kappa fraternity.
