Five retire at Mead

Five employes have retired from the Chillicothe Mills of the Mead Corporation, representing 26-42 years of service.

Retiring after 42 years is Virgil Watters, 447 Church St. Other retirees and years of service: John Reed, 186 Locust St., 35 years; Howard Fannon, Route 1, Frankfort, 29 years; Charles Kutchsbach, Route 4, and Ed Hawkins, Box 14, 26 years each.

Watters spent the first 16 years with Mead in the machines department and the remaining 26 years in shipping. Reed spent his first five years in construction and the remainder in shipping. Kutschbach and Fannon spent all of their service in the sorting department. Hawkins retired from the specialty products department.
